

Press Release
For immediate release

AMO PROGRAMME RECEIVES ACCREDITATION FROM NaCCA

AMO Programme Company Limited, a pioneering Ghanaian educational organization, has officially received accreditation from the National Council for Curriculum and Assessment (NaCCA). The accreditation, granted on May 2, 2025, by NaCCA and signed by its Director General, Professor Yayra Dzakadzie, PhD, affirms AMO Programme's compliance with Section 104(l)(b)(iii) of the Education Regulatory Bodies Act, 2020 (Act 1023).

The recognition marks a significant milestone for AMO Programme, known for its development of Active Learning Materials (ALMs) and advocacy for experiential, child-centered learning across Ghana. Founded in 1995 and incorporated as a limited liability company in 2021, AMO (Agodi Ma Osuahu) which translates from Twi as "Playing gives Experience" has impacted hundreds of schools through its durable, locally made educational tools and teacher training programmes.

"This accreditation strengthens our mission to transform classrooms through hands-on learning, we are proud to support Ghana's educational reforms and help equip children with skills for lifelong success." Rev, Dr. Kofi Amfo-Akonnor, Amo Programme's Coordinator.

NaCCA's approval confirms that AMO Programme's materials align with Ghana's Standards-Based Curriculum, reinforcing national goals to promote critical thinking and interactive learning in basic education.

Tel: +233 (0) 50 900 2 900

Contact

Abigail Kwakye
Marketing Officer
Amo Programme Company Limited
marketing@amoprogramme.org
www.amoprogramme.org

